

STUDY AREA

The Interstate 10 bridges over the Gila River are at the end of their service life and require frequent and expensive deck and foundation repairs. These bridges need either a major rehabilitation or need to be replaced. The study area is located in Pinal County, within the Gila River Indian Community.

Bridge elevation looking north

Bridge deck condition issues

River erosion has exposed foundations

ADOT Project Number: F0270 01D and Federal Project No. 010-C(224)T

I-10 BRIDGE PROJECT

